

How do you work out if something is true?

1. Brainstorm with the students' criteria for working out if something is true
2. Ask someone to give an example of something that fits these criteria
3. Apply the criteria to the bible and Jesus
4. Discuss the implications of the bible being trustworthy
5. Answer student questions and hand out gospels at the end